

Is it better to live in the town or the country ?

There's quite a lot to do in a town - if you pay for it! We have a leisure centre, cinema and loads of shops, but to get into the leisure centre and cinema you need money - and quite a lot of it too, as the prices are always going up! ”

I live in a village and there is nothing to do, so I just go shopping, meet friends and go to the cinema.

I live in a town. There's a leisure centre near my house. It's about 10 minutes walk. It has a swimming pool and a gym. So it's ok here. ”

There's a bit to do in my town, there're quite a few shops, two bowling alleys, a large cinema, quite a few restaurants and fast food outlets, swimming pools and playing fields. ”

I love it where I live because it is in the country and there are lots of things to do outside, like riding, walking, playing by the stream... ” Olivia, 11, Ireland

I love where I live (in a village) because everybody knows everybody and it has everything in it that you need. ”
Ellie, 12, Blairgowrie

I love living in a village. Everything is so friendly. It's great because everyone knows each other and when someone is ill or down the whole village comes together to help them. ”
Rebecca, 14, Brill

I love the village I live in because I know everyone! I also love being in the country because there's loads of stuff you can do outdoors. ”
Ed, 13, Wiltshire

I really love where I live because I hate the city, because it's really busy and it smells. The country is much better!
