

In your opinion, what does the Union Jack represent?

It represents the union between the countries of the uk

The Union Jack is a flag which represents all territories of the United Kingdom.

The Union Jack represents an economic union

Maybe a cross

The union Jack represent union between many countries

The union Jack represent union between many countries

The army

Unity

The union jack represente people

In your opinion, what does the Union Jack represent?

It's a group of peoples with a common symbols